dedication

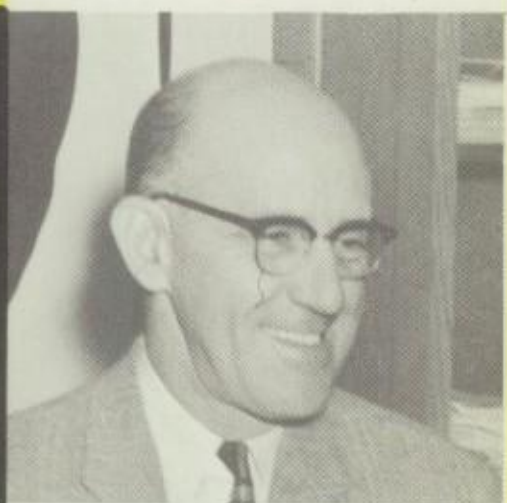

We, the students of the South Glens Falls Central School, respectfully dedicate this sixteenth volume of the Arrowhead to the past and present members of the Board of Education. These dutiful people have fought to uphold the standards of our school with no reward except the achievement of a better school and community.

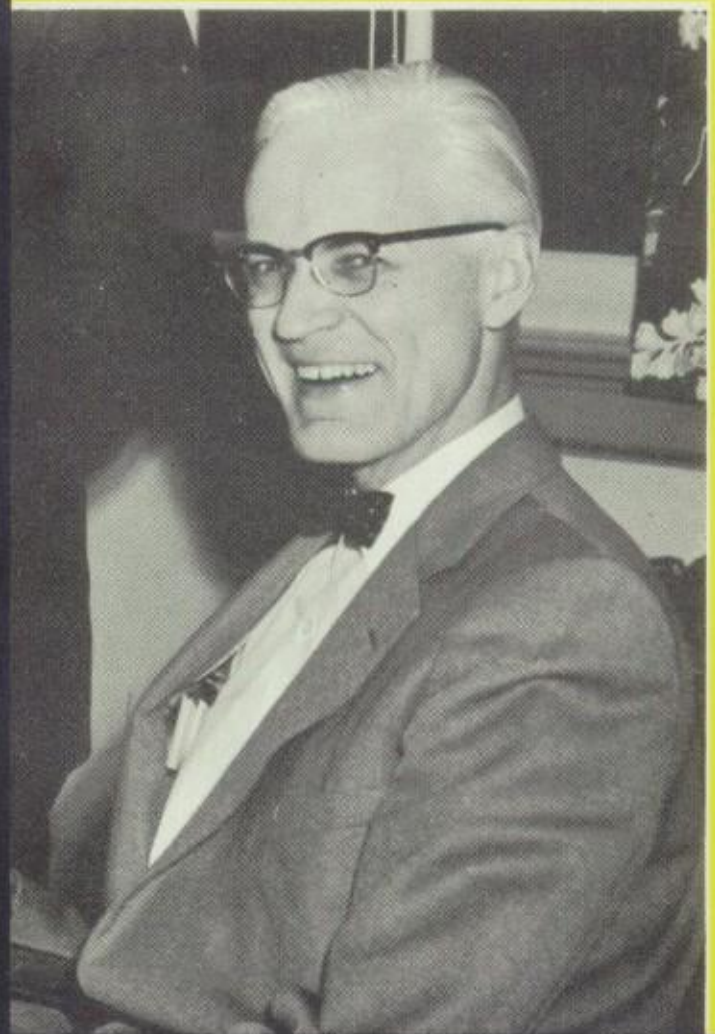

As the nucleus of our whole system, the Board of Education is responsible for everything taught and for those who teach. All decisions rest upon their shoulders. The responsibility for all the building programs has been theirs. Seldom recognized for their successes, they are quickly censured for their failures. They have suffered through public opposition and criticism but will soon reach, it is hoped, their ultimate goal.

May we humbly show our appreciation to these dedicated people, who have made our school system one of the best in New York State. We only hope that we, the present student body of the South Glens Falls Central School, are deserving of the burdens which these people have borne for us.

BOARD OF EDUCATION — 1958-1959: Seated: Harold VanDewerker, Miss Elizabeth V. Call, Lewis H. Steele, Robert S. McMorris. Standing: William C. Philo, George J. Cooper, Dr. E. Yale Clark, Clarence C. Washburn, and Carl W. Rudio.

a history of the class of 1959

THOMAS L. GORMAN

September, 1955 . . . The class of 1959 assembled for its first official meeting as Freshmen. Under the capable guidance of Mr. Walker and Mr. Gorman, no time was wasted in electing class officers. Richard Kobor was elected President with Richard Clark serving as Vice-President, Nancy Rising as Secretary, and Marsha Anderson as Treasurer, an office which she was to hold for the next four years. . . . Ambition was no stranger to us; two dances plus the profit from candy and card sales helped to add money to the newly formed treasury. . . . Freshmen participated in various clubs and activities and were represented in Student Council by John Jones and Edward Curtis.

Sophomores! It hardly seemed possible that one year of high school life had passed. Newly elected officers were: President, Richard Clark; Vice-President, Larry Hawkins; and Secretary, Sharon Lanphear. . . . One major activity highlighted the year — a very successful dance which was attended by many area students. . . . Elizabeth Klausner, Jacqueline Hamilton, Judith MacEwan, and Edward Curtis kept the class informed in the field of student government.

Another year flew by and the class of '59 found itself in its Junior year. Chosen as leaders were: Joanne DeGarmo, President; John Jones, Vice-President; and Emilie Clark, Secretary. . . . Numerous activities filled the 1957-58 school season for the "Jolly Juniors" . . . magazine sales . . . a dance, "The Record Rock" . . . two food sales . . . the Junior-Senior play, "The Life of the Party" . . . the Junior Prom, "Blue Hawaii" . . . Representing the Juniors in Student Council were: Myrl Solberg, Harry Gutheil, Richard Clark, Edward Curtis, Nancy Rising and Frederick Worthen.

September, 1958. . . . Seniors, at last! Officers elected this eventful year were: President, James Gormely; Vice-President, Jacqueline Hamilton; Secretary, Emilie Clark. Holding the money bags for the last time was Marsha Anderson. . . . Edward Curtis and Catherine Freebern served as representatives in student government. Presiding as officers in Student Council were: Joanne DeGarmo, President, and Myrl Solberg, Treasurer. . . . This year, however, belonged to each Senior as an individual. . . . His hopes, ambitions, and dreams were about to be realized. . . . As the year drew to a close and the door to the adult world opened, every member of the class felt that South High had accomplished what it had set out to do in preparing him for the future.

Amidst a tropical setting of palm trees and a moonlit blue lagoon, drifted strains of the theme, "Blue Hawaii" . . . in honor of our soon-to-be fiftieth state.

The procession of the attendants and queen across the bridge spanning the lagoon to the throne was the highlight of the evening. Participating as flower girl and crown bearer, respectively, were Marjorie Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Clark, and Kent Clark, brother of the queen.

The radiant queen, Emilie Clark, received her crown from her predecessor, Ann McBride. She reigned over several hundred dancers, and the prom was proclaimed by many to be one of the loveliest in years.

Ray Nelson's orchestra furnished the music and rendered many tunes which blended in very well with the island theme. Chaperones were: Miss Marilyn Empie and Mr. Thomas Gorman, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Judson Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Jones, Mr. and Mrs. A. Morton Raych, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Solberg, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur James.

Life of the party

1958 junior-senior play

March 15, 1958 brought to the stage of the South Glens Falls Central School, a hilarious comedy, 'Life of the Party.' Written by Marijane and Joseph Hayes, the play depicted the semi-Bohemian family, the Hughes, who moved into a new town. They became involved in a series of complicated events, culminating in disaster on the prom night. The wise readjustments of the characters to one another and to life made the play both unusual and worthwhile.

Under the direction of Leon Sparling and Arthur James, the entire cast of Juniors and Seniors gave a spirited and convincing interpretation. Vivid evidence of the hard work done by the stage crew was the exceptional scenery and lighting effects.

Ann Ruth tells Pat Blackburn, "Just a little more this way, please."

Lora seems disturbed over the gaiety of the other principals, just before the rise of the curtain. Mr. Sparling smiles approval as Mr. James wishes Linda the best of luck. Midge and Marsha, "all shook up," stand by.

A number of the members of the class of '59 participated behind the scenes. Among these were Harry Gutheil, Linda Harrington, Barbara Darling and Lois Brown on properties. June Potter, Lynn Shaw and Susan Bonitatibus sold tickets. The ushers included Barbara Darling, Nancy Carey, Nancy Rising, Linda Simonetta, Lois Brown, Betty Klausner, Diann Myers, Cathy Freebern, and Judy Porteous. Maureen DuFour, Ann Ruth, Gail Varney, and Linda Van Loan assisted Mrs. Marie Sparling and Mrs. Marie Freebern with makeup. Ray Burlett, manager of the stage crew, had Bob Mosher on stage design and Ray Albert as his chief assistant. The stage crew was under the direction of A. Morton Raych and Harley Smith.

Lora seems somewhat hesitant about entering the room, but Linda and Jackie don't seem a bit ruffled.

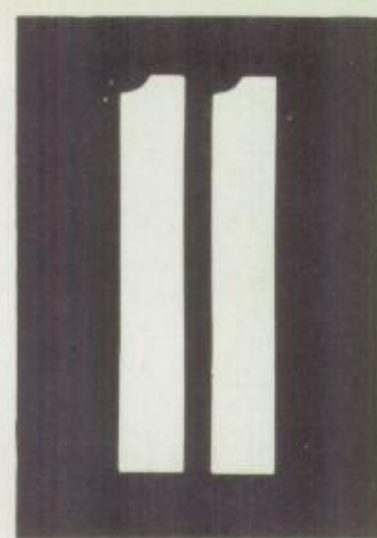

"Look out," says Midge, "Marsha's going to throw that book!" However, Pat doesn't seem worried at all.

In September of 1956, the class of 1960 began its Freshman year by electing as officers: President, Thomas Cleland; Vice-President, Donald Dixon; Secretary, Donna DeGarmo; and Treasurer, Claire Washburn. Under the leadership of Miss Davis and Mr. Youker, the class sponsored a very successful candy sale.

Another year passed and new officers were elected. Scott Gray was chosen President and serving under him were Thomas Cleland as Vice-President, Bonnie Smith as Secretary, and Donna DeGarmo as Treasurer. Representing the sophomores in the Student Council were Scott Gray, Porter Reed, Donald Flewelling, and Bonnie Smith as Secretary. Their money making activities included a class dance and another candy sale.

Leaders chosen for the Junior year were: Scott Gray, President; Margaret Orsini, Vice-President; Audrey Corlew, Secretary, and Donna DeGarmo, Treasurer. Thomas Cleland served as Vice-President of Student Council; Linda Whyland and Donald Flewelling were elected to serve under him. This year was highlighted by the selection and receiving of class rings and preparation for their beautiful Junior Prom.

To be selected for membership in the National Honor Society is the highest honor which may be conferred upon a student. To be a member, a student must possess the qualities of scholarship, character, service, and leadership.

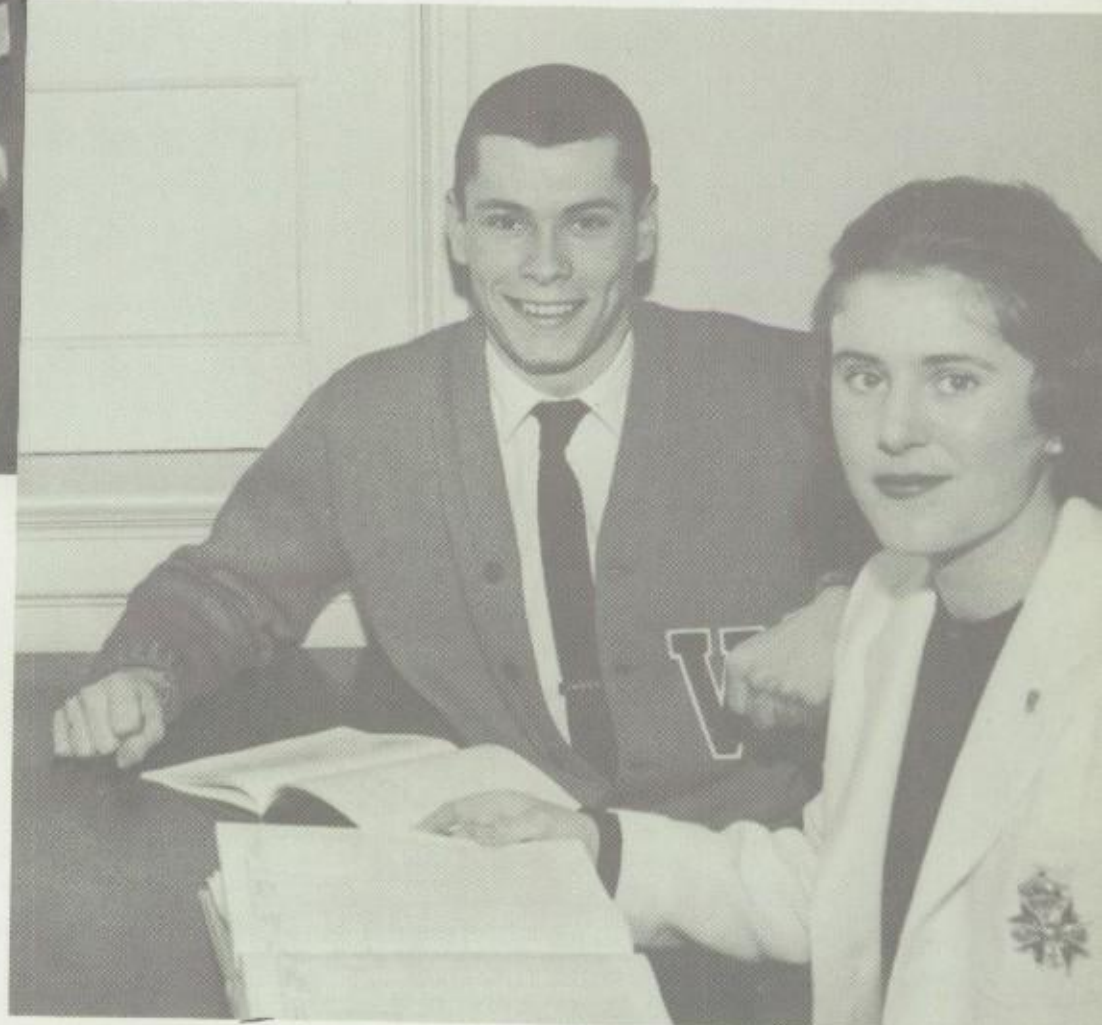

The following seniors were tapped for Honor Society in May of 1958: Marsha Anderson, Joanne DeGarmo, Lee Call, Myrl Solberg, Lois Brown, Elizabeth Klausner and Maureen Dufour. They then participated in a very effective tapping ceremony in March of 1959. Inducted into the Society at that time, were seniors: Lora Langworthy, Susan Bonitatibus and Christine Barney, and juniors: Margaret Orsini, John Myers, Stephen Ostrander and Porter Reed.

Student council

The Student Council, composed of students from grades 7-12 plus four officers, is the only governing body of the school in which the students are represented. Its purpose is to bring about a closer understanding between students and the administration.

A new method was used this year in choosing the council members and officers. In the Spring preceding the present school year, students interested in holding a council office filled out applications. The office of treasurer is an appointive office. The student body voted for their choice for each office, and the successful candidates were sworn into office on Moving Up Day. This Fall other members were chosen by their individual classes. The student committee, with the class advisor, selected three boys and three girls as candidates who possessed the necessary qualifications. The class voted for one boy and one girl to represent them on the council.

Student service groups

In previous years, the ninth period was called the "activity period." This period is now a "scholarship" period, with the emphasis on supervised study.

The activity period was set aside for clubs and other activities such as musical organizations and sports. Ninth period this year was set aside for extra help. This year school work had preference and teachers could call students in to make up work for which extra help. Thus, the club program has been curtailed.

Several voluntary services are performed by a number of South High pupils for the mutual benefit of both the students and school personnel. It is only fitting that these be mentioned because the functions they render have proven invaluable.

The Audio-Visual organization's most important duty is running the movie projectors for classes and assembly programs. Ask any participant in a play or concert, and they will tell you just how helpful is the work of the Stage Crew. The preparing of the scenery plus the lighting effects are two of its responsibilities.

The Hall Monitors provide South High with another useful service. The primary duty of these "policemen" is to keep the students moving on the right side of the halls. This prevents much unnecessary confusion.

The branch labelled Cafeteria Workers may be divided into three different areas. Members of the opportunity class assist the women in the kitchen, while Diane Hall, a junior, serves as cashier. Students in each lunch period donate their time to watch the lunch line and make sure that no undue crowding takes place.

Pupils assist the secretaries in the various offices during study halls throughout the day by filing, answering phones, and performing many other useful services. Students walking into any of these offices will, more often than not, find a student-friend behind a typewriter.

Library assistants have various jobs: They deliver overdue notices to forgetful students, help Miss Donovan during study halls by checking out books, and prepare new books for library shelves.

The Varsity Club is a service club, composed of varsity letter men, whose purpose is to promote sportsmanship and fair play in athletic events.

After a boy has earned a varsity letter he is asked to become a member of the club and if he chooses to join he is subject to an informal and later a formal initiation. In the fall and winter months, Varsity Club members sell Coke at the football and basketball games. Another duty of the club is to officiate and coach the Saturday morning basketball games.

From Spring of 1958 to the Winter of 1959, South High's teams did exceptionally well. While posting a better than .500 record, and showing a great deal of spirit, the South High boys displayed good sportsmanship throughout the year.

The conditioning of the Bulldogs, on the whole, was good. The batsmen, cinder-men, and gridders were of the best conditioned teams in the league. While this showed up in the two spring sports it seemed to have little effect on the fall season's team. Moving on to the Winter, South High came up with a championship wrestling team and although it started out slowly, a basketball team with a good record.

Outstanding men from this year's graduating class were Larry Hawkins (football, wrestling, baseball), Dick Clark (football, basketball, track), Dick Reynolds (football, baseball), Chuck Graves, a standout in basketball, Jim Gormely, (football, basketball, track), Bob La Rock (football, wrestling, baseball), Dick Kobor (football, track), and Jim Bolio, an asset to the track team. Glad Jackson, who has completed his athletic eligibility, was also vital to the track, football, and basketball squads.

Those juniors who have looked exceptionally well this year are Jim Prendergast, Bob Canales, Porter Reed, Tom Wood, Scott Gray, Bob Leombruno, Tom Cleland, Don Flewelling and Ron Jarvis. The school is grateful for the accomplishments this year and looks forward to even greater laurels from next year's teams.

Coaches Youker, Gray, and McGuffin, and a serious crowd, watch the action in a football game.

Under the leadership of Head Coach Lyle Gray and Line Coach Andy McGuffin, the Varsity Football team had one of the most successful seasons since South High has been in the Northern Conference. Early in the season, Coach Gray started the team on its way with the split "T" formation plays, typical of recent Bulldog teams. After learning the strong points of the line, the coaches added some new plays to the "T" series which added strength, as well as variety, to the Bulldog's bite. Due to the fine workouts planned for the Canines, they found themselves among the top conditioned teams in the Northern Conference. This showed up in the fact that there were no serious injuries received by anyone except for a scraped knuckle or turned ankle.

In the scoring column this year, Larry Hawkins registered three touchdowns and the conversion for a total of nineteen points. Helmsman Mike Oddy, Halfback Sam Grover and End Bob Canales contributed twelve points each, and Dick Clark tallied four conversions, a .500 average.

The Line, handicapped by lack of weight, turned in good showings at the Whitehall and Glens Falls games by holding the Maroons scoreless, and losing to the Indians by only two points. This was a moral victory. Halfback Joe Leombruno, Guard John Fitzgerald and Linebacker Bob LaRock relieved Dick Kobor, Porter Reed and Mike Oddy respectively in defensive berths. Guard Tom Wood, Tackles Don Dixon and Dick Reynolds, and Ends Jim Prendergast and Bob Canales ground it out all the way with Jim Gormely and Jerry Dwyer seeing much action.

Veteran Halfbacks Larry Hawkins and Sam Grover, and Fullback Dick Kobor did most of the ball carrying this year. Mike Oddy called the signals. With the passing arms of Oddy and Hawkins and the glue fingers of Canales, Prendergast and Grover, the Bulldogs had an excellent passing team this year.

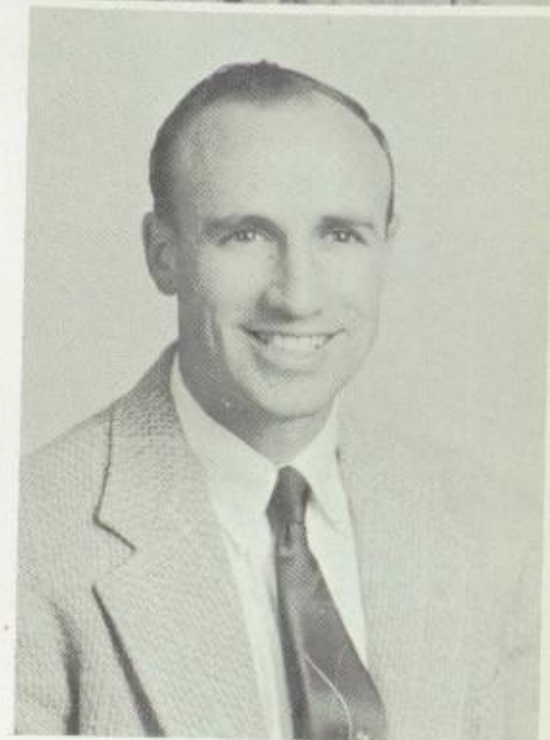

WHO'S GOT THE BALL?

To supplement the passing attack, Oddy pounded at the line with the "bread and butter" off-tackle plays . . . "44" and "23." Subbing for the backs were Gladwin Jackson, Mickey Kipp, Don Flewelling, Joe Leombruno and Bill Varney.

Returning lettermen who are eyeing starting berths next season include Bob Canales, Jim Prendergast and Sam Grover, each of whom has earned two letters in Football. Others are Porter Reed, Tom Wood and Cliff Mull, who earned their letters this year.

Next year Coach Gray will have to fill the holes left by Seniors Larry Hawkins, Dick Clark, Dick Reynolds, Mike Oddy and Dick Kobor in offensive positions, and those of John Fitzgerald, Bob LaRock and Joe Leombruno on defense.

With two offensive and one defensive Line positions, and three offensive and two defensive Backfield positions left vacant, Coach Gray will need some versatile replacements from the Junior Varsity.

Led by coaches John Youker and Joe Munoff, the Jayvee team had a one and three record this year, winning over Corinth (7-6) and losing to Glens Falls (19-6), Saint Mary's Academy (19-0) and Hudson Falls (32-12).

Calling signals for the Little Bulldogs was Don Flewelling with Mike Dickinson, Mickey Kipp, and Bill Varney carrying the leather. On the line were Bill Mull at Center, Bob Owens and Bill Rendo at Guards, Paul LaValley and Brian Bidwell at Tackles, and Dick Stanczyk and Tom Cleland at Ends. Others who contributed were Louis LaValley, Jim Maguire, Cal Mosher, Cliff Mosher, and John Wright.

Junior Varsity Football awards went to Bill Alden, Brian Bidwell, Tom Cleland, Mike Dickinson, Don Flewelling, Mickey Kipp, Louis LaValley, Paul LaValley, Jim Maguire, Cal Mosher, Cliff Mosher, Bill Mull, Bob Owens, Bill Rendo, Grant Smith, Dick Stanczyk, Bill Varney, and John Wright.

This year the Junior Varsity squad turned in many fine performances during the basketball season. Under the capable coaching of Gil Burnell, the Bulldog Pups have steadily improved, as is shown by the increase in the winning of games. In the 56-57 season, the results were 4-12. Improvement showed up in the season of 57-58 with the over-all result of 7-9. The past season of 58-59 ended with a total of 10-7.

The Jayvees played a very good offensive game with Henry Dwyer (221), Wayne Jones (209) and Pete Wood (173) leading in the scoring column. Henry Dwyer's 221 is 15 shy of the school's Junior Varsity scoring record of 236 set in the 56-57 season by his brother, Jerry Dwyer. Playing on defense, Louis Luciano and Wood did an excellent job out front, while Bill Alden, Dwyer and Jones scrapped under the boards for the ball.

COACH GILBERT BURNELL

Among the seven games lost, five were lost by a small margin of one to six points. The highest game score was the South High-Whitehall game at Whitehall with a final total of 84-48.

The Junior Varsity is looking forward to an even better season next year with Bryan Bidwell, Dick Measeck, Jim Stratford, Gary Lanphear, Mickey Kipp, Mike Dickinson and Don Foster returning to form the nucleus of the team. Looking for berths on the Varsity squad next year are Luciano, Wood, Dwyer, Jones, Alden, Gary Mattison, Mondie Leombruno and Clark Squires.

South High finished its fifth season in fifth place in the Northern Conference, with six wins and eight losses. After winning the first game against Fort Edward, the Bulldogs lost the next five in a row, but came back in the last game of the first half to beat Whitehall. In the second half, the boys played very nice ball to win four out of seven. They finished the season ahead of Granville, Fort Edward and Whitehall.

The team contained two of the league's top scorers in Chuck Graves and Jerry Dwyer, who scored 262 and 221 points respectively. Graves was also the possessor of the team's best foul-shooting average, scoring on two out of every three shots. Jerry Dwyer cleaned the boards to become top rebounder, with the able assistance of Dick Clark. Improving greatly through the season, Gladwin Jackson and Ed Curtis took over the backcourt and did an exceptionally good job of defense. Jim Gormely performed outstandingly in the Whitehall game. Piling up 873 points for the season, for a 51.35-point average an outing, the Bulldogs made impressive showings during the latter half of the season. The Varsity Bulldogs averaged 56 per cent in their foul shooting.

Coach Ron Lennox will lose six seniors from this year's team: Chuck Graves, Jerry Dwyer, Dick Clark, Ed Curtis, Jim Gormely and Glad Jackson, who is a junior but has concluded his eligibility in sports this year. Next year Coach Lennox will have a fine array of juniors to pick from: Jim Prendergast, an outstanding performer; Scott Gray, Ron Jarvis, Don Flewelling, Tom Cleland, and some fine Junior Varsity Players.

COACH: EDWARD HYDE

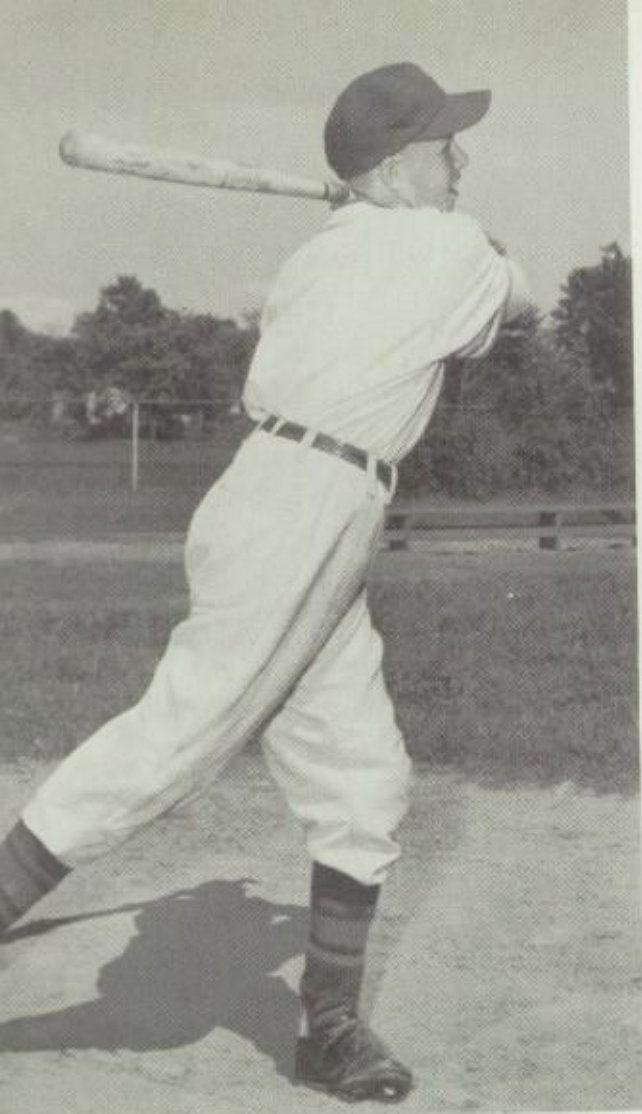

The Bulldog Juniors looked brilliant in winning four of their five starts for an .800 average for the season. The J.V.'s were led by ace pitcher Louis Luciano, who won four of the five games. Leading the team in hitting were: Peter Wood (.556), Scott Gray (.444), Donald Flewelling (.350), John Hamel (.333), Thomas Cleland (.308), and Sam Grover (.250).

The Junior Bulldogs collected thirty-five hits while allowing only eighteen to the opposition. The brilliant fielding showed in committing only ten errors while their opponents had twenty-four.

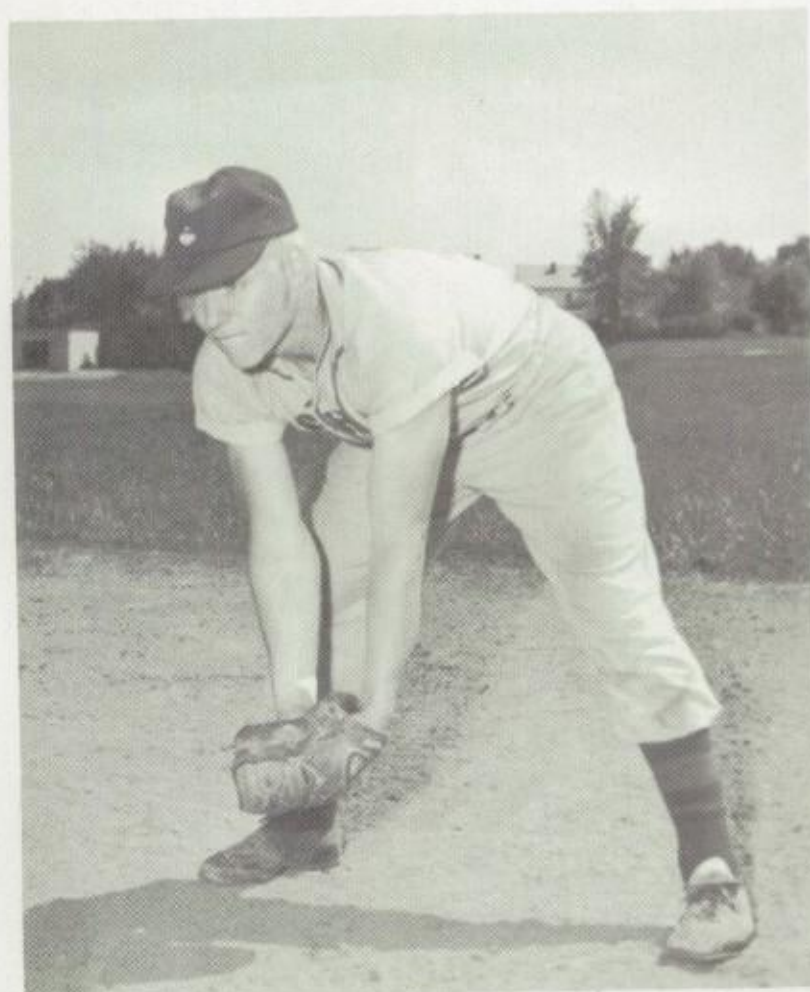

With the graduation of many key players to the Varsity Squad, Coach Edward Hyde was busy remodeling the team this spring.

958 varsity baseball

The Bulldogs turned in an over .500 average for the 1958 season, winning seven of their thirteen starts. Coach Andrew McGuffin led his team to the best season for South High since entering the Northern Conference.

Pitchers Dick Bodette, Earl Helwig, Harold Washburn and Tom Prouty took turns hurling to catcher Dave Allen. Dick Sweet held down first base while Larry Hawkins and Earl Helwig guarded the keystone corner. Dick Farry did a great job at third base. In the outfield, Luther Taylor, Steve Blakeslee, Steve Dickinson and Tom Prouty showed sensational fielding ability. The Bulldogs had great hitters with Prouty (.385), Washburn (.308), Taylor (.281), Sweet (.276), and Allen (.262) leading the team.

During the season, the Bulldogs split with Argyle, St. Mary's, Granville and Fort Edward. Winning two out of three starts from Hudson Falls, the diamond-men took a single game from Whitehall, but lost one to Glens Falls. The Bulldogs were not shut out all season, but managed to blank Hudson Falls due to the fine pitching of Earl Helwig, who allowed the visitors only two hits for the game. Three of the six losses during the campaign were by one-run margins.

Playing their final game for the Bulldogs were Allen, Sweet, Helwig, Farry, Taylor, Blakeslee, Dickinson and Bodette. The team lost eight players last June but Hawkins, Prouty, Washburn and Jackson were available as a nucleus of the 1959 team. From the outstanding JayVee team came Don Flewelling, Sam Grover, Tom Cleland, Louie Luciano, Scott Gray and Henry Dwyer.

Track and field – 1958

In the second season under Coach Ron Lennox, South High competed in class B Track for the first time in the school's history. Competition with larger schools at the Johnstown Sectionals was complicated by mid-season injuries to key personnel, so they were unable to repeat their previous Sectional Championship.

The high point of the season for the South High cindermen was their convincing victory at the Glens Falls Annual Invitational Meet at Glens Falls on May 10. Despite the stiff rivalry of Hudson Falls, St. Mary's, Glens Falls, Granville, Whitehall, Fort Edward, Gloversville and Corinth, the Bulldogs came through with top honors of the day. The 77 points tallied by South High earned them the beautiful trophy which graces the school's trophy case.

The Bulldogs made their standout debut April 30 by crushing Fort Edward and St. Mary's at home, 51-29-24. Here, Ron Measeck started a string of wins that was not interrupted until his injury at the mid-season mark. Ron vaulted 10 feet and broad-jumped 18' 11" for his double victory. Dick Kobor also scored a double victory in the 180-yard low hurdles and the 220 dash. His 23 seconds time in the 220 was a new school record. Jim Gormely copped the mile; Jim Bolio won the 880 and Jim Prendergast won the shot to make their debut satisfactory.

After a 69-15 romp over Ballston Spa, in their second meet, Hudson Falls finally overcame South High's cindermen in their third outing. Still Measeck kept up his victorious rampage with a vault of 10' 6" and a jump of 19' 3". Other victors in South High's first setback were Steve Dickinson, Jim Bolio, Dick Kobor and Jim Prendergast. Final Score . . . Hudson Falls 57, South High 45. However, when South High ventured to Hudson Falls the following week, the Bulldogs flew by both Hudson Falls and Whitehall to win by nine points. This demonstrated the fighting spirit of the South High cindermen. Here Ron Measeck vaulted 11' 1½" to set an outstanding high school record.

HEAD COACH:
RON LENNOX

During the 1958 campaign, Jim Prendergast captured the shot record with a toss of 45' 10", and Dick Kobor lowered his marks in the hurdles to 20.7 seconds, and in the 220-yard dash to 23 seconds flat. Ron Measeck also took individual scoring honors for the year. He scored 48 points in six main track meets, for an average of 8 points per meet.

Without the aid of the injured Measeck, the Bulldogs travelled to Johnstown on June 7th to compete in the class "B" Sectionals. Here, the team produced 8 points. Captain Jim Bolio and Jim Prendergast took fourth places in their specialties, while Jim Gormely and Dick Kobor finished second in their events. Kobor's third best time of the day in the 180-yard low hurdles earned him a bid to the State Track Meet Championships at West Point on June 14th.

For the 1959 Track Season, Coach Lennox had a nucleus of a dozen seasoned veterans to help carry the cindermen to a successful schedule.

1958 Captain Jim Bolio returned, along with Jim Gormely, Bob Canales, Dick Kobor, Jim Prendergast, Gladwin Jackson, Eric Jensen, Ray Albert, Dick Clark, Tom Cleland and Dieter Eveleth.

Although Ron Measeck was sorely missed due to his tour of duty in the United States Army, the Bulldogs of South High, bolstered by their new mascot, did their utmost to overcome this deficit.

Bernard Wood

Under the coaching of Don Hay, South High's net men came up with a near-championship in 1958. In the regular season they tied Glens Falls' record of five wins and one loss and had to go into a play-off match with the Indians. The Bulldogs couldn't come up with two straight wins over the Indians, however, and dropped the play-off match. South High piled up thirty-three points to their opponents' thirteen which is an excellent record.

The Bulldogs dropped their first match to Glens Falls (1-4) but followed with five consecutive wins, beating Schuylerville (5-0), Hudson Falls (4-1), and Glens Falls (3-2). They then went into the play-off match with Glens Falls and followed with two straight wins over Johnstown (5-0), (6-0).

The team was composed of singles men Bob Linindoll, Barry MacEwan and Dick Vandewerker, with James Norman and Roger Mayott at doubles. All were veterans of the 1957 season. Yearlings in the 1958 season were Gordon Allen and Bob LaRock, who made up the second doubles team.

For the 1959 campaign, the Bulldogs had a new coach, Mr. Stewart Stearns. "Coach" Stearns played tennis at Nott Terrace High School and at Dartmouth College and provided an excellent replacement for retiring Coach Hay, who moved over to the track team. Bernie Wood, Fred Worthen and Bill Granger returned from last year's reserves along with starters Gordon Allen and Bob LaRock to form the nucleus of the squad.

south high's first wrestling team – undefeated champions

Outscoring their opponents by more than 200 points, South High's first wrestling team registered an undefeated season in the Northern Conference with six victories for Coach Andrew McGuffin. Shutting out Whitehall twice, and winning a pair each from Corinth and Glens Falls, the Bulldog Matmen were really impressive in their debut.

Bob Leombruno, with 6 pins in 6 matches, led the all-conquering Bulldogs, while Captain Porter Reed, Jerry Balcom and Tom Wood also won all 6 of their matches. Wrestling 5 matches, Cliff Mull scored 5 pins, while Jim Maguire was undefeated in his 3 matches, and Fred Abare pinned both of his opponents before a shoulder injury kept him out of competition.

Bob Canales pinned Pekins of Whitehall in 22 seconds for the fastest score of the initial season. Tom Wood had a 28-second pin over Corinth's O'Connell, and Leombruno had third best time with a 30-second pin over Taft of Whitehall.

Of the twenty-man mat squad, only four are Seniors and have completed their high school mat career. Larry Hawkins, who won 5 of his 6 matches by pins, and Fred Abare, undefeated in the season, were members of the first team.

Fred Abare takes the advantage over Jerry Balcom as Coach McGuffin supervises practice.

JIM MALONEY

BOB LA ROCK

Bob LaRock and Jim Maloney of the Reserve Squad helped keep the First Team on its toes. Block "S" winner Ron Dingman will be over-age next season.

Next season's Mat team will be an experienced one. Coach Andy McGuffin will start with a nucleus of Juniors Porter Reed, Bob Leombruno, Tom Wood and Bob Canales, and lower class letter winners Mike Larrow, Jerry Balcom, Cliff Mull, Bill Varney and Jim Maguire. Fighting for first string positions will be a half-dozen of this year's reserves, including Bill Mull, Steve Ostrander, Louis LaValley, Paul LaValley, Bruce Bidwell and Preston Jenkins.

This new sport has certainly captured the imagination of participants and spectators alike, and has already established itself as an important part of the late winter athletic schedule.

Glennie, the elf-like individual who personalizes the history, tradition and friendliness of the Glens Falls Insurance Company, offers sincere congratulations to the graduates of the class of 1959.

He recalls his own school days and subsequent entrance into the Glens Falls family of employees. “I was fortunate,” says Glennie, “to have chosen a career with a growing company where my work has been steady and where there’s always opportunity for advancement.”

He hopes that many young men and women in the class of '59 will consider visiting or writing the Glens Falls about post-high school or post-college careers in our continually expanding insurance business.

As you near the end of the 1959 Arrowhead, allow me the privilege of using this last page to thank those who contributed to its success. Only those who participated in this project . . . students, faculty members, photographers, and printers . . . can fully appreciate the satisfaction experienced at the completion of the yearbook. We are grateful to the school staff for allowing us to disrupt their schedule in order to take pictures. I would especially like to express my appreciation to those responsible for giving me the privilege of being editor.

We would never have successfully completed the Arrowhead without the help of many people who so unselfishly gave of their time. Mr. Gorman, who also was the business advisor, had the job of proofreading along with Mr. Walker. Also very valuable to us in the art and English departments were Miss Frascatore and Mrs. Kelleher respectively. Most of the pictures in this yearbook were taken by Ramark Studio of Schenectady and the printing was done by Bullard-Glencraft Printing, Incorporated, of Glens Falls. Ed Solberg was responsible for the designing of the cover, the end sheets, the title page and the section divisors. The cooperation given by all was greatly appreciated.

We were fortunate in having Mr. Raych as our advisor. His experience with yearbooks proved invaluable, not only in planning this Arrowhead, but also in teaching the staff members many things about the production of a book of this type. This knowledge will be especially valuable in future years to the underclassmen who worked with us on this project.

I hope that you enjoyed reminiscing over the past year as you read this book. It was a pleasure to have worked on it.

Lois Brown

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

a note on the format

The format of this book is based upon the artistic experiments of the Dutch artist, Piet Mondrian (1872-1944). By 1917, in Holland, these had developed into the movement known as De Stijl or The Style. The Style makes use of right angles, straight lines, primary colors, and asymmetrical, or occult, balance. The Style has had a colossal impact upon all levels of contemporary art until — its origin forgotten — it has become practically synonymous with "modern" design.
